Listing of Claims:

Claims 1 – 3: Cancelled

4. (New) A combat vehicle having a vehicle body that is carried by a chassis and in which is disposed a crew compartment, wherein an unmanned turret, which is pivotable in azimuth, via a turntable disposed on a roof plate, is disposed on an upper side of said vehicle body, and wherein said turret contains a weapon that is pivotable in elevation, said combat comprising:

a panoramic viewing device embodied as a glass optical direct viewing device and including a viewing head that is disposed above said roof plate on an azimuthal axis of rotation of said turret;

a rotationally symmetrical passageway that extends through said turret, coaxial to said axis of rotation, from said roof plate to a base plate of said turret; and an optical viewing channel that is guided through said passageway and connects said viewing head with a viewing part of said viewing device that is disposed in said crew compartment, wherein at least said viewing head is pivotable, relative to said vehicle body, by at least 360° in azimuth, independently of a position and rotation of said turret .

5. (New) A combat vehicle according to claim 4, wherein said optical viewing channel is disposed within a tube that connects said viewing head with said viewing part .

6. (New) A combat vehicle according to claim 5, wherein said viewing part, said tube, and said viewing head are embodied as a common component that is pivotable independently of said turret and is fixed to a hull of said vehicle.
